CURRICULUM VITAE

Arnaud Brolly is the Founder & CEO of EC-Impact, a Singapore-based firm dedicated to advancing sustainability in the aviation sector. Under his leadership, EC-Impact has become a recognized member of ACI APAC & Middle East, actively supporting airports in their decarbonization journey, with a particular focus on achieving Airport Carbon Accreditation (ACA) levels.

The company also delivers specialized software solutions that help airports accelerate CO<sub>2</sub> reductions and optimize energy efficiency. A pioneer in the development of Sustainable Aviation Fuel (SAF) in Asia, EC-Impact is actively contributing to the expansion of Book & Claim systems through its collaboration with IATA and RSB.

Most recently, the company successfully delivered a SAF certificates marketplace project in the Philippines, connecting full local ecosystem—from SAF producer to airline and corporation.

Additionally, Arnaud works as an independent consultant for the Asian Development Bank (ADB), where he brings his expertise as a Sustainability Specialist to support Airport Public-Private Partnership (PPP) projects.

His contributions include areas such as Environmental Management Systems, climate risk assessments, and strategies for adaptation and resilience, among others.

This project is funded by the European Union and implemented by EASA
